Saturday 21st Travel to Hawera.
Sunday 22nd Stay a second night in Hawera.
Monday 23rd Return Home.

Main Itinerary:

Friday 20th
MEET: As usual at Ray Small Park, Elliott St Papakura (Next to RSA) 8.30 am
DEPART: 8.45 am (If running late ph. Paul on 027 2922204)

We take a scenic drive through some back country roads via Tuakau and Pukekawa on past Huntly and Ngaruawahia to Pirongia, where we stop briefly for morning tea. Then on to Otorohanga to visit a Farm collection of machinery, cars, Auto Memorabilia and a display of Quilting. This is our lunch stop.

After Lunch we travel South through more rural country roads, to and through, Te Kuiti and onward on S/H 30 to Waimiha, to visit an old Sawmill, set up as a museum. From here we continue to Taumarunui for our 1st night stop over. Dinner tonight will be at the RSA.

Saturday 21st:

We begin the day with a visit to the Railway Museum at the Railway Station, then across the tracks to the main building, where we will be given a talk on some of the equipment, before heading down the Forgotten World Highway to Whangamona Hotel for Lunch. Afterwards we continue to and through Stratford and on to Hawera for 2 nights. Dinner at a local venue.

Sunday 22nd

An easy day with lots to see, including The Elvis Presley Room, Cardonal Classics,

The Hawera Water Tower,
The Tawhiti Museum (2 sections, - a must visit for anyone who has never been there)
